

CUSTOM CASES

Custom cases ensure that valuable aircraft parts are shipped in a safe and secure manner, while saving time packaging and unpacking. Our custom cases are the ideal solution for aircraft parts that are shipped to and from vendors. Each case is specifically designed for the component being shipped to ensure the perfect fit and level of protection.

Our custom cases are also ideal for Mobile Repair Team / Field Service Technicians. Similar to the tool box liners, these cases have removable trays and they offer in field tool control / FOD prevention.
